PISA

Pisa is strategically located in the central part of Italy. It is only 12 km from the Ligurian Sea, 20 km from the harbour of Livorno and the ferries heading to the Elba Island, Sardinia and Corsica, 80 km from Florence. This city is closely associated with the Leaning Tower. But Pisa also preserves, with the whole complex of Piazza dei Miracoli - cultural patrimony of all humanity - and its medieval centre, numerous masterpieces of architecture and medieval history. The area around Pisa is also excellent for farm-holidays, trekking, beaches and water sports on the Versilian coast.

THE CITY

You say Pisa and you immediately think of the Leaning Tower, one of the most famous monuments in the world. But Pisa is not just its tower - the city also boasts the extraordinary complex of buildings known as the Piazza dei Miracoli, with its magnificent cathedral and baptistery. Step away from the Tower and you'll discover the old town with palaces from Renaissance, medieval tower-houses, churches in Romanesque and gothic style, narrow pebbled streets leading to the river Arno. Enjoy the scenery of the lungarni (embankments), step into the Botanic Gardens (one of the oldest in Europe, recently restored).

Pisa was the birthplace of Gailileo Galilei and hosts an important university, founded in 1338, and the Scuola Normal superiore, opened in 1813. As an Etruscan settlement and a Roman town, Pisa formed part of the Longobardo Kingdom, and then of the Carolingio Empire before becoming part of Italy after 1861. The medieval period coincided with the peak of Pisa's economic and political power. Pisa was one of the four Italian coastal republics until it was annexed to the Ducato of Tuscany in 1406.

Pisa is the starting point to discover the province, with its unspoilt and well preserved landscape. Do not miss a visit to Volterra (65km) on the way to San Gimignano or to San Miniato (50km) on the way to Florence. The area around Pisa is excellent for farm-holidays, trekking, beaches and water sports on the Versilian coast.

DO & SEE

The boat service in Pisa (operating from April to October) will let you enjoy the architectural scenery of the embankments or the natural beauty of the nearby San Rossore Regional Park. In the Natural Park the racecourse: the gallop season goes from October to March. Pisa celebrates its traditional events; the fascinating "Luminara", the historical Regatta on the Arno and the contest "Gioco del Ponte" in June. An alternative is the Festival of International Sacred Music, "Anima Mundi", taking place in September-October in the Cathedral and Monumental Cemetery.

Torre Pendente (Leaning Tower of Pisa)

The Tower of Pisa is the bell tower of the Cathedral. Its construction began in 1173 and continued for over two centuries. It has a lean of 5,4 metres.

Duomo and Baptistery Battistero

Monuments and museums belong to the Opera Primaziale Pisana, founded in the 12th century to build and supervise the works of the monuments in the so-called Miracles' Square, because of the architectural and artistic beauty. The Cathedral was first built 1064, when Pisa was the most powerful sea-based republic in the Western Mediterranean. In 1152 the construction of the Baptistery began, and was completed in gothic style a century later. Since 1987 the monumental complex has been awarded by UNESCO as World Heritage. In addition to monuments conservation and restoration, the Opera Primaziale Pisana promotes events such as the Festival of Sacred Music "Anima Mundi" (Sept-Oct) and "Concerts under the Tower" (Jun - July). Museums and monuments are open all the year, except on 25th Dec and 1st Jan.

Museo Nazionale di San Matteo

Housed in the 13th-century former Benedictine monastery, the museum keeps works from the main religious buildings of the city. Remarkable are the collection of 14th- and 15th-century Pisan sculpture and the collection of paintings consisting of nearly 200 works from the Tuscan school (12th-14th-century). The picture gallery keeps paintings by Italian and foreign artists dating until 18th-century, ecclesiastical vestments and liturgical gold-works.

Address: Piazza San Matteo in Soarta, Lungarno Mediceo

Piazza Dei Cavalieri

The beautiful Piazza dei Cavalieri was the political center of the Pisan Republic. During the 16th century it was radically transformed by Giorgio Vasari and became the seat of the new military order of the Knights of St. Stephen. The square is dominated by the Palazzo della Carovana, whose facade is completely covered in graffiti, and today hosts the Scuola Normale Superiore, founded by Napoleon in 1810.

Address: piazza dei Cavalieri

Internet: www.comune.pisa.it

Museo Nazionale di Palazzo Reale

The National Museum was prepared in 1989 to host numerous works of art belonging to the courts of the city government, such as the Medici, Lorena and Savoia, as well as some private collections. The building still keeps the appearance of an aristocratic residence, with fittings and furniture from the 17-19th centuries.

Address: Lungarno Pacinotti, 46
Opening hours: Tue-Fri 9.00-14.30/Sat 9.00-13.30 Closed : Sun and Mon

Tickets: € 3.00

Orto Botanico

The Botanical Garden was established in 1544 as the first university botanical garden in Europe, and entrusted to the famous botanist Luca Ghini. The garden is divided into sections containing the botanical school, gardens, ponds, greenhouses, and various buildings. Major collections include herb gardens and arboreta, as well as the old botany institute of late 16th century, with a facade ornamented with sea-shells.

Address: Via Luca Ghini, 5
Opening hours: Mon-Sat 8.30-13.00
Phone: +39.050.2215374
Tickets: free entrance

Cantiere delle Navi antiche di Pisa (Ancient Ships Working Site)

I Lungarni (The "Lungarni" Quays or riversides)

For centuries these quays were the heart of the city. Until the nineteenth century they were covered with piers and docks. These were later destroyed to reinforce the banks. The "Lungarni" boast a succession of beautiful buildings, interrupted by five bridges.

The Jewish Cemetary

Located just outside Piazza Duomo, it is one of the oldest Hebrew cemeteries in Europe (1648). The cemetery presents an extraordinary historical artistic repertoire: from the parallelepiped burial mounds of Hebrew tradition dating from 17th to 18th centuries to the Liberty styles dating from the 19th and 20th centuries.

EATING

In Pisa you can find typical meat-based and fish-based Tuscan cuisine. You should try the characteristic chickpea soup together with the so-called sciocco (unsalted) bread and the famous local olive oil. Homemade pasta is another must.

L'artilafo

Trendy and typical Tuscan cuisine but also creative dishes, such as pea-pancake, salmon and cream, goose foie gras with radishes and orange jelly. Good choice of cheese and extensive wine list.

Address: via S. Martino, 33 - Old town
Opening hours: Sunday closed
Phone: +39 05027010
Internet: www.lartilafo.it

A Casa Mia

This is one of the best restaurants of Pisa and never too busy due to its location outside the city centre (its around 2 km from piazza dei Miracoli). The restaurant is to be found in a independent house with a garden. You can eat in the kitchen or in the dining room and in summer in the garden. The cuisine is creative.

*Address: via Provinciale Calcesana, 10 - località Ghezzano
Phone: +39 050879265*

Il Vecchio Dado

This traditional restaurant - it was opened over two centuries ago - lies along the banks of the Arno. Recommended choices: homemade pasta (taglioni, tagliatelle, potatoe gnocchi, pasta stuffed with cheese), mushrooms, S.Miniato truffles and pizza cooked in a wood-fired oven.

Good service and nice atmosphere.

*Address: Lungarno Pacinotti, 21/22
Phone: +39 050580900*

Le Scuderie

This place is always crowded because its pizzas are extremely tasty.

*Address: via Sancasciani, 1
Phone: +39 050 40884*

Pizzeria Martino

A characteristic and cosy place. Recommended choices: chickpea soup and pizza with cherry tomatoes and mozzarella di bufala.

*Address: Piazzetta del Crocifisso, 4
Phone: +39 050500016*

La Cereria

This pizzeria is not frequented by many tourists because of its hidden location (an old courtyard). Very good pizza 'by the metre' (it's not round, and you can order a one meter pizza or even two or three) and desserts such as tiramisù.

*Address: via P.Gori, 33
Phone: +39 05020336*

CAFÉS

Salza

The oldest and best cake shop in Pisa (opened in 1926)! It offers a very good choice of pastries, chocolates and ice cream. Try the soft panforte (a typical Tuscan cake) and if you want an original gift you could even take home a Leaning Tower made of chocolate. Salza also opens as a lunchtime restaurant (12-15).

Address: Borgo Stretto 46
Phone: +39 050 580244
Internet: www.salza.it

Pasticceria Lilli

This place is just outside of the city centre, close to the San Michele church - which has the second leaning tower of Pisa - at the end of a beautiful avenue. Spectacular pastries, and it's nice to sit outside and eat them here in the shade.

Address: Viale delle Piagge, 15

Caffetteria Dantesca

BARS & NIGHTLIFE

Before going to dinner, don't miss the apéritivo bars (which are usually open between 18.30-21.30). The early-evening drink has become a must in Italy for both young and old people. It's also an easy way to meet people.

The real place for night-life is on the Versilia coast, just 10 km from the city (the most famous discos are in Viareggio or Forte dei Marmi). Pisa does however boast some decent places to listen to live music or for dancing.

Amaltea

A small place in a good location. This is one of the most fashionable places for an apéritivo. There is a wide choice of drinks with canapés and other snacks.

Address: Lungarno Mediceo 49

Bar S. Domenico

This bar is to be found in an old monastery. People come here for an apéritivo (with rich buffet) venue or just for an after-dinner drink. During the week the staff organise karaoke evenings and wine and cheese tastings.

Address: Corte di S. Domenico 2

La Borsa

As one of the most fashionable place for young people and in particular university students, the tables outside are always packed.

Address: piazza V. Emanuele 1

Borderline

Live music two times a week. On Mondays there is a so-called 'jam session' (which means that anyone can turn up and play) and on Thursday there are concerts with Italian and international groups. On Friday and Saturdays the place specialises in disco rock. Smokers' room available.

Address: Via G. Vernaccini 7 (near Teatro Verdi)
Phone: +39 050.580577
Internet: www.borderlinepisa.it

Acqua Cheta

The best night-club in Pisa. It's also a restaurant.

SHOPPING

The area around the Tower is packed with tacky souvenir shops. Ignore them and walk to Corso Italia and the Borgo Stretto, the two main shopping streets in Pisa. Here you will find all kinds of Italian fashion shops. The cheapest brands are in Corso Italia and the most well-known and elegant lie stores in the medieval Borgo Stretto.

Other two streets such as via Mercanti and Via dei Rigattieri can boast many excellent shops. All around the centre of the city there are dealers who sell old books and paintings.

And if, generally speaking, you are interested in antiques and old furniture, the Fiera dell'antiquariato e artigianato artistico (Antique and craft fair), which is held in Via Santa Maria, Piazza Felice Cavallotti, Via dei Mille, Via Corsica, Piazza dei Cavalieri and Via Ulisse Dini every second Saturday and Sunday of the month (except August and July), is highly recommended.

Another place you must visit is the Mercato delle vettovaglie (Fruit and Food market, in Piazza delle Vettovaglie) which is over a hundred years old, and is open from Mondays to Fridays.
