Welcome to ROMA

Welcome to Rome!!! An international tournament in an international city, surrounded by the extraordinary beauty of the capital. All matches take place at the La Borghesiana sports center, which with its 8 natural and synthetic grass pitches is the venue for the sports retreats of the Italian national football team and many other foreign national football teams. We are just 15 minutes from the center of Rome. Inside the La Borghesiana sports center there will be food stands and a restaurant for lunch on 19th and 21th April 2025. The tournament is approved by F.I.G.C. and the various matches will be directed by referees from the AIA section of Rome. At the last editions we had the pleasure of hosting participants from:

Italy, England, Japan, Greece, France, Belgium, Switzerland, Argentina, Mexico, Colombia, Kenya, Austria and Malta

SUNDAY 20 APRIL 2025 (EASTER) ALL PARTICIPANTS AT THE TOURNAMENT THEY WILL BE ABLE TO ATTEND THE EASTER CELEBRATION OF POPE FRANCIS IN PIAZZA SAN PIETRO WITH PERSONALIZED INVITATION -Free lunch therefore not included in the fee-

Tourist Offers

EXCURSIONS AND VISITS

Aware that you cannot see Rome in one day, we still try to do our best to let you experience the beauty of Rome.

MINI TOUR

From St. Peter's Square, walk along Via della Conciliazione up to the River Tiber and visit the Castel Sant'Angelo. Alternatively, instead of taking the Via della Conciliazione, we recommend crossing the ancient Borgo Vittorio, the area that runs along Via della Conciliazione (looking at St. Peter's Square, on the right), which ends at Castel Sant'Angelo. If you don't want to get lost, follow the walls of the old aerial path that connects Città San Pietro to Castel Sant'Angelo with your eyes. From here you cross the Ponte Sant'Angelo, to head directly into the historic center of Rome, from where you can easily walk to Piazza Navona and the Pantheon. Before leaving the Piazza Navona area, we recommend a visit to the ancient church of Sant'Apollinare, with its famous trompe l'oeil (the church is located just outside Piazza Navona, towards the Pantheon). If you wish to continue your visit, from the Pantheon continue towards Via del Corso and arrive at Via dei Condotti. Via dei Condotti takes you directly to Piazza di Spagna, with its famous Barcaccia fountain and the steps leading to Villa Borghese and then to the Pincio. If you like antique shops and jewelers, from Piazza di Spagna take Via del Babuino (recommended); or immerse yourself in the shops of Via del Corso (pedestrian street). In the first case, follow the street on the left of Piazza di Spagna (Via del Babuino) to Piazza del Popolo. Alternatively, you can take the famous Via Margutta (looking towards Piazza del Popolo, Via Margutta is the street on the right, parallel to Via del Babuino). Before leaving Piazza del Popolo, we recommend a visit to the Church of Santa Maria del Popolo.

BASILICA OF SAINT PETER

The arrival in St. Peter's Square reserves the visitor a unique emotion, that of the suggestion created by the size of the square, in front of St. Peter's Basilica, scenically embraced by the 4 rows of elliptical colonnade designed by Gian Lorenzo Bernini. The sense of breadth and solemnity will then be enhanced upon entering the basilica. Inside the basilica of St. Peter there are masterpieces known and admired all over the world.

PANTHEON

One of the most incredible testimonies of the architectural technique of ancient Rome.

The structure of the Pantheon is characterized by the insertion of a spherical space within a cylindrical section, which determines the exact equality between the height from the floor and its diameter.

Inside the Pantheon it will be possible to admire the tombs of important artists, such as Raphael and all the tombs of the kings of the kingdom of Italy.

PIAZZA DI SPAGNA

The beautiful Piazza di Spagna is certainly among the most scenic and famous in the world. It is the meeting point of Roman liveliness and is the point from which numerous streets open radially onto which the boutiques of the most prestigious world brands overlook. Along via dei Condotti we recommend a visit to the Caffè Greco, a local historian who has counted among its guests personalities from the world of culture and entertainment. At the top of the staircase stands the unmistakable profile of the Trinità dei Monti church, continuing on you can reach Piazza del Popo through a scenic walk
