ATHLETE'S OATH

I, a young footballer, promise to bring respect, friendship and solidarity to all those who share the sporting and competitive spirit with me in these days.
I will avoid any unfairness, welcoming a sincere handshake.

I ask for help and support from parents and fans, so, when I grow up, I too will have to decide about the education of my children.

I wish everyone an awesome tournament, in the name of friendship between all of us and Sport Values

DID YOU KNOW THAT ?

PIAZZA DEI MIRACOLI

UNESCO World Heritage Sites since 1987, you can admire the four monuments that form the center of the city's religious life, called miracles (so named by Gabriele D'Annunzio in the expression "Prato dei Miracoli", contained in the novel Forse che sì forse che no, from 1910) for their beauty and originality: the Cathedral, the Baptistery, the Campo Santo and the Bell Tower.

LUMINARA

The Luminara di San Ranieri (Pisan vernacular for «luminaria») is a city festival that takes place in Pisa on the evening of 16 June each year, the eve of San Ranieri, patron saint of the city. A series of fireworks are fired from some floating platforms located on the Arno river, creating a unique scenography with the flames of approximately 100,000 candles placed on the Lungarni buildings.

GIOCO DEL PONTE

The Gioco del Ponte (Giòo der Ponte in Pisano) is a historical reenactment that takes place every year on the Ponte di Mezzo in Pisa. The Game, in which the Magistracies (representing the city districts) gathered in the Southern and Tramontana parts (south and north of the Arno) face each other, consists of pushing a trolley along a track specially mounted on the Ponte di Mezzo.

CAPODANNO PISANO

The Pisan calendar was a particular type of calendar in use in Pisa and other areas of present-day Tuscany until the mid-18th century, which made the year begin on March 25th (the feast of the Annunciation of the Virgin Mary according to the liturgical calendar), anticipating its beginning by nine months and seven days compared to the "modern style" still in use today, which indicates January 1st as the first day of the year.
